

General Terms and Conditions - Corporate Clients

1. About the General terms and conditions

The Bank's General terms and conditions apply to all agreements between you and the Bank. Here you can read about your and the Bank's rights and obligations.

Individual business areas may require more detailed terms and conditions to serve as a supplement to these General terms and conditions. This applies to for instance the terms and conditions of Skjern Banks Netbank.

Also, the Bank's General terms and conditions contain information in accordance with the Danish Act on Payments and are considered a framework contract which states the rules for the use of payment accounts and payment services. The provisions of the Danish Act on Payments have been derogated to the extent possible unless otherwise provided by these General terms and conditions or special conditions for the individual business areas.

The Bank may change the General terms and conditions without notice if the change is to your advantage. In other cases, you will be given three months' notice.

Skjern Bank's General terms and conditions may be downloaded from www.skjernbank.dk or obtained from your local branch.

2. Collection and processing of data

In order to enable the Bank to provide services to you, we need your name, address, business registration number (CVR) and you must provide information about your tax situation. You must provide documentation of the information given by showing a transcript from the Danish Business Authority, a memorandum of association or other documentation.

In addition you must provide information about the purpose and expected scope of your customer relationship with the Bank.

You must disclose the name, address and civil registration number (CPR) of the beneficial owners of your company and documentation of this information must be provided by way of a copy of passport or other documentation including photo and civil registration number (CPR). If there are any changes in the beneficial owners, the same requirements as to information and documentation apply.

If you do not meet the requirements specified by the Bank, if you do not provide us with the information requested or if we assess that the information is incomplete or insufficient, the Bank may be unable to offer you advisory services or otherwise serve you. In some instances it may mean that the Bank cannot establish a customer relationship with you or that the customer relationship must be terminated. This will for instance be the case if the information is necessary to comply with statutory requirements.

The Bank obtains information from sources and records accessible to the general public. In connection with credit assessments we examine whether information has been registered about you with credit information agencies and on warning lists. This information is updated for as long as you are a customer.

Moreover the Bank obtains information about you from its business partners (including correspondent banks and other banks) in the instances where consent has been given or in accordance with the law.

The Bank registers its communications with your contacts and records certain telephone conversations, eg in connection with investments.

The Bank processes information for the purpose of offering financial services of any kind, including payments, advisory services, customer relationship management, customer administration, insurance mediation and mortgage mediation, credit ratings, internal risk management, marketing and fulfilment of obligations in accordance with legislation.

In order to minimise the risk of being used for money laundering, certain forms of activities have been exempted from the Bank's business model. You can read more about this in the Bank's Policy for Prevention of Money Laundering, Terrorist Financing and Sanctions Breaches, which is available at www.skjernbank.dk/hvidvask.

According to anti-money laundering legislation, the Bank is obliged to investigate the background behind and the purpose of all complex and unusual transactions and activities and to register the results of these investigations.

According to anti-money laundering legislation, the Bank will store information, documents and other relevant registrations for at least five years after the termination of the business relationship or completion of the individual transaction. Registered communications and recorded telephone conversations (voice logs) in accordance the MiFID rules are accessible for you for five years if you contact the Bank in this regard. In exceptional cases the Danish FSA among others may request that the data is available for up to seven years.

3. Disclosure and transfer of data

In order to fulfil agreements with you, for instance if you have asked the Bank to transfer an amount to others, we will disclose the information necessary to identify you and carry out the agreement.

Moreover the Bank will disclose information about you to public authorities to the extent we are obliged to do so according to legislation, including to the Money Laundering Secretariat of the Danish State Prosecutor for Serious Economic and International Crime in accordance with the Danish Money Laundering Act and to the Danish Customs and Tax Administration in accordance with the Danish Tax Reporting Act.

In addition the Bank will disclose information to external business partners (including correspondent banks and other banks) if you have given your consent or if such disclosure is possible according to legislation.

If you are in breach of your obligations to the Bank, we may report you to credit information agencies and/or warning lists according to the rules in force.

4. The Bank's duty of confidentiality and your access to information

The Bank's employees are under a duty of confidentiality and are not allowed to disclose information which has come to their knowledge in the course of their employment with the Bank unless authorised to do so.

You may contact the Bank to learn which information the Bank processes about you. If you wish to have the information in writing, you may be charged a fee. However access to such information can be limited.

If the Bank discovers that it holds erroneous or misleading information about you, the registrations will be corrected or deleted so that processing is effected on a proper basis.

If the Bank has disclosed incorrect data, we will make sure that it is corrected.

5. Electronic communication

You will generally receive mail from the Bank, including bank statements, agreements, terms and conditions and any changes hereto, electronically in your Netboks in Netbank Erhverv.

The Bank may also choose to send agreements for your electronic signature and mail via a provider of electronic mail and signature solutions.

Mail is considered as having been delivered at the time when it is available to you in your Netboks or other electronic mailbox.

Subject to a fee, you may choose to receive certain types of mail which you receive electronically - for instance bank statements and annual statements - as a hard copy.

If you have notified the Bank about your contact details, for instance your mobile number and/or your email address, it is your responsibility to always keep these details updated at Skjern Bank. A message from the Bank to one of the media that you have informed the Bank about is considered to have been communicated to you, regardless of whether you have not updated the contact details.

It is your choice whether you wish to receive a text message or an email when you have received new mail. Irrespective of your decision, the Bank may choose to inform you separately via text message or email when electronic mail has been sent to you.

6. Authorisation

You may authorise others in writing to operate your accounts with the Bank. The authorisation will remain in force until the Bank receives your written notification of its revocation or amendment.

If the principal is a personally owned business, the authorisation will cease to exist in the event of the death of the principal and access to accounts, custody accounts and safe deposit boxes will be blocked. The same may apply if the principal is a partnership and a partner dies.

7. Interest and commission

You may contact the Bank to obtain information on its interest and commission rates applicable to deposits and loans.

Interest and commission rates are variable unless otherwise expressly agreed by you and the Bank. Variable rates imply that the Bank may change the rates.

The Bank may change variable rates at any time without notice if the change is to your advantage.

The Bank may reduce variable rates on deposits and increase variable rates on loans without notice, if

- domestic or foreign changes of monetary or credit policy affect the Bank as the general interest-rate level is affected;
- other developments in the general interest-rate level, including money and bond market rates, are of importance to the Bank;
- changes of external circumstances beyond the control of the Bank, but which are of importance to the Bank, for instance direct and indirect taxes, occur.

The Bank may reduce variable rates on deposits and increase variable rates on loans and commission at 14 days notice, if

- market-related issues, for instance competition- or earnings-related issues, justify changes as regards one or more account types
- circumstances which were significant to the determination of your individual interest-rate terms change;
- the Bank outside the context of the general interest-rate level developments - changes its general interest-rate and pricing policy for business reasons. Business reasons may for instance be a more appropriate use of the the Bank's resources or capacity, or improved earnings.

For mortgage loans we can for the same reason only increase the interest rate at three months' notice.

The Bank changes commission rates and other rates referred to as "premium" or "margin", etc. in specific agreements according to the same guidelines as those applying to changes in interest rates.

The Bank will give notice of any changes in rates.

8. Value dates, calculation of interest and commission

As a rule interest and commission are calculated on a daily basis. The Bank will inform you on request about what applies to a specific account.

The value date is the date from which a payment into or out of an account or any other account movement will affect the calculation of interest on an account.

The registration date is the date on which the Bank registers an account movement.

The entry date is the banking day on which a registered account movement is entered. An account movement is entered no later than the next banking day after its registration.

Banking days/transaction days are every day with the exception of Saturdays, Sundays and Danish public holidays, 5 June (Constitution Day), Friday following Ascension Day, 24 and 31 December.

When the Bank has registered an account movement, it will be listed in the account entries in registration date order.

The value date is in case of

- cash payment in DKK or EUR into a payment account in DKK or EUR: the first banking day after the entry date;
- other cash payments and payments by card: as a rule the first banking day after the entry date;
- transfers from other clients of Skjern Bank to payment accounts: the entry date;
- transfers from other clients of Skjern Bank to other accounts than payment accounts: the first banking day after the entry date;
- transfers received from other Danish banks to payment accounts: the entry date;
- transfers received from other Danish banks to other accounts than payment accounts: the first banking day after the entry date;
- payroll and supplier payments: the day on which the amount is at your disposal (usually the same day as the entry date);
- cash payment out of an account with Skjern Bank, including by card: the transaction day;
- withdrawal of cash at ATMs on non-banking days: the first banking day after the withdrawal;
- use of payment cards at payment terminals: the entry date;
- transfers between own accounts with Skjern Bank in the same currency: the entry date;
- transfers between own accounts with Skjern Bank in EUR/DKK: the entry date;
- transfers between own accounts with Skjern Bank in various currencies: the entry date. However in some instances international bank holidays must be taken into account.

With respect to international transfers and transfers in foreign currency, reference is made to the section on payment transactions in foreign currency.

9. Interest and commission

The Bank will add both your interest receivable and your interest payable and commission, either on a monthly, quarterly, biannual or annual basis.

When adding interest and commission, the Bank will credit or debit the interest and commission amount computed since the most recent addition.

Interest, commission or fees added are included in the balance used to calculate interest. This means the Bank will compute interest on accrued interest, commission or fees.

10. Fees

The Bank charges a fee for services rendered and for answering enquiries from public authorities. The Bank may also charge a fee for forwarding information in accordance with the Danish Act on Payments, eg bank statements.

Fees will be calculated as a fixed amount, a percentage or an hourly rate proportionate to the extent of the services or a combination of the above.

You may contact the Bank to obtain information on fees.

The Bank may reduce its fees without notice.

Fees which you pay on a regular basis under existing contracts can be increased by the Bank without notice, if:

- changes of external circumstances beyond the control of the Bank, but which are of importance to the the Bank, for instance direct and indirect taxes, occur.

Fees which you pay on a regular basis under existing contracts can be increased by the Bank at one months notice, if

- market-related issues, for instance competition- or earnings-related issues, justify changes as regards one or more business areas.

Fees which you pay on a regular basis under existing contracts (including mortgage loans) can be increased by the Bank at three months notice, if

- circumstances which were significant to the determination of individual fees change;
- the Bank changes its general fee structure and pricing policy for business reasons. Business reasons may, among other things, be a more appropriate use of the Bank's resources or capacity, or improved earnings.

Under existing contracts, the Bank may for business reasons introduce fees for services, which have not previously been subject to a fee. The Bank may introduce fees at three months notice.

The Bank may without notice introduce or increase fees charged for individual services and for new agreements.

The Bank will give notice of any changes in fees.

11. Overdraft interest and reminder fees etc

If an account is defaulted on due to an overdraft, arrears or use contrary to agreement, the Bank is entitled to charge overdraft interest. If the account is closed due to default, the Bank is entitled to charge default interest.

The Bank may charge

- fees for sending reminders
- debt collection fees
- fees to cover debt collection and legal assistance expenses.

The size of the reminder fee will appear from the Bank's reminder and from the price list. Details of other fees, the overdraft interest rate and the default interest rate are available at the Bank.

On defaulted claims, the Bank may choose to stop the crediting of interest for administrative and accounting purposes. This does not mean that the Bank will waive its right to receive interest on its claim and to demand payment of subsequently incurred costs. This will apply irrespective of what appears from the lists of account entries, self-service systems etc.

12. Provisos as regards deposits

Non-cash deposits into your accounts will be recorded by the Bank provided that the Bank finally receives the amount.

This reservation applies even when it is not stated on receipts or other notifications regarding the deposit.

The Bank may according to agreement with other banks be obliged to carry back amounts, for instance amounts that have been transferred due to fraud.

Deposits may have been registered and may be available before the entry date. The Bank will report to the public authorities on the basis of the entry date. You are responsible for deposits being made well in time for the amount to be reported as intended.

13. Bank statement examination

You are obliged to examine the entries in your accounts regularly. If there are any entries that you cannot acknowledge, you must contact the Bank as soon as possible.

However any complaints regarding payment transactions falling within the Danish Act on Payments must be made within two months of the transaction being executed.

14. Payments from your accounts

Payment accounts are all accounts which are opened to execute payment transactions.

The Bank determines which accounts can be used as payment accounts and therefore payment transactions cannot be executed from all your accounts with the Bank.

The execution time is the time which will pass before a payment transaction has been registered in the payee's account. The maximum execution time for payments is one banking day, however a maximum of two banking days as regards paper-based payments, for instance giro forms.

However special terms and conditions apply to international payments and payments in foreign currency. The terms and conditions can be viewed in Terms and conditions - International Payments.

If a payment order is received near the end of a banking day, the payment order will be considered to have been received on the following banking day. The closing time of a banking day depends on the type of payment order. The cut-off times for the various types of payment transactions are available from the Bank on request.

Payments may have been registered before the entry date and may have affected your available balance. The Bank will report to the public authorities on the basis of the entry date. You are responsible for making payments well in time for the amount to be reported as intended.

You may revoke payment orders up to and including the banking day before the banking day on which you intended the order to be executed. You may revoke payment orders within the time-limits applicable to the individual types of payment transactions.

The Bank may reject a payment order in the absence of sufficient funds in the account from which the payment is to be made.

15. Set-off

The Bank is entitled, without prior notice to you, to set off any amount receivable, due or not due, against your balance with the Bank or against any amount payable by the Bank at the present or any future time, whether the amount receivable is due or not due.

The Bank will not set off amounts against account balances which are exempt from debt enforcement by law or separate agreement.

16. Termination of customer relationship

You and the Bank may terminate the customer relationship without notice. If the Bank terminates the customer relationship, you are entitled to receive a reason.

The Bank may terminate the client relationship without notice if the Bank assesses that we cannot fulfil the requirements of the Danish legislation on measures to prevent money laundering and financing of terrorism or other legislation, for instance because you do not give the Bank the information it is under an obligation to obtain from you in accordance with legislation.

In addition, the Bank may terminate the client relationship or make other necessary measures if you or the owners are directly or indirectly comprised by sanctions issued by the EU, UN, EEA, the UK, the US or other competent authorities.

If you cannot accept changes to the rules on payment services, you must notify the Bank before the change takes effect. You will simultaneously cancel the payment services to which the change relates.

Upon termination of the customer relationship, the Bank is entitled to terminate any surety and guarantee obligations and to free itself from other obligations undertaken on your behalf. In addition you are obliged to release the Bank from all obligations undertaken on your behalf or, when necessary, to provide security for such obligations.

17. Payment transactions in foreign currency

For international payments and payments in foreign currency, the Bank's Terms and conditions - International Payments, which are available at www.skjernbank.dk or at the Bank's branches, will apply.

As regards payment transactions falling within the Danish Act on Payments and entailing conversion between two currencies, the Bank will apply the following principles for the determination of the exchange rate:

Quoted rate. The rate is fixed on the basis of the Skjern Banks exchange rate plus a premium or less a discount of up to 0,75 % per cross rate. The premium or discount rate depends on the specific cross rate.

The principle applied to the payment transaction depends on the transaction type as well as the currency. We will inform you of the principle, rate and any premium or discount used on request.

The rate is published at Netbanken or is available upon request from the Bank.

18. Transactions abroad

Where the Bank transacts business outside Denmark on your behalf, it will choose a business partner. The Bank is not liable for any error committed by the chosen business partner nor for the fulfilment of its obligations.

You and the Bank are subject to the rules of law, customs and business conditions governing the agreement with the business partner.

When transferring money to countries outside Denmark, you must be aware that information may be passed on to the US authorities. SWIFT is an international data network for the transfer of funds between countries. According to US legislation, SWIFT has been ordered to disclose information if it suspects financing of crime or terrorism when payments are executed.

If you make payments to abroad or payments in foreign currency or if you are to receive payments from abroad or payments in foreign currency, you must be aware that the payment may be contrary to international sanctions and consequently the payment may be delayed, returned or frozen. The Bank will not be liable for any loss occurred in this respect.

19. In case of disagreement with the Bank

If you are dissatisfied with the Bank, please contact your branch.

If, after having discussed the problem with your branch, you do still not agree with the Bank, you may file a complaint with the Bank's complaints officer. You may obtain information about the complaints officer of the Bank's upon request from the Bank or at www.skjernbank.dk.

Complaints concerning the Bank's compliance with financial legislation may be filed with the Danish FSA.

20. The Bank's liability to pay damages

The Bank will be liable to pay damages if, due to errors or negligence, the Bank's performance of its agreed obligations is delayed or defective.

Even in areas where strict liability applies, the Bank will not be liable for any loss incurred as a result of

- breakdown of/non-access to IT systems or the corruption of data in these systems attributable to any of the events listed below, regardless of whether the Bank or an external supplier is responsible for operating the systems;
- power failure or breakdown of the Bank's telecommunications, legislative or administrative intervention, natural disasters, war, rebellion, civil unrest, sabotage, terrorism or vandalism (including computer viruses and hacking);

- strikes, lockouts, boycotts or blockades, regardless of whether the conflict is aimed at or initiated by the Bank itself or its organisation, and regardless of the cause of the conflict. This also applies where the conflict affects only parts of the Bank;

- other circumstances beyond the control of the Bank.

The Bank will not be exempt from liability where

- at the time of signing the agreement, the Bank ought to have foreseen the event that caused the loss or ought to have prevented or remedied the cause of loss;
- under Danish law, the Bank is liable for the cause of loss under any circumstances.

Moreover the Bank will not be liable for any direct loss as a result of the non-execution of or defective execution of payment transactions falling within the Danish Act on Payments.

21. Business partners

According to the Danish Executive Order on Good Business Practice for Financial Undertakings, the Bank must disclose that we receive remuneration for arranging for the sale of and selling the products of our business partners.

A list of our business partners is available at the Bank's branches and at www.skjernbank.dk.

22. Guarantee Fund

As a client of the Bank you are to a certain extent protected against losses through the Guarantee Fund (Danish guarantee scheme for depositors and investors). You can read about the scope of the coverage at www.skjernbank.dk or at fs.dk.

23. Supervisory authority

The Bank is subject to the supervision of the Danish FSA, Strandgade 29, DK-1401 Copenhagen K, finansilsynet.dk and is registered under FSA number 7780.

24. Applicable law and jurisdiction

Any disputes will be settled in accordance with Danish law and under the jurisdiction of the Danish courts. If the defendant's home court is not a Danish court, an action may be brought before a court in the judicial district of the registered office of Skjern Bank.

Valid from 1 May 2024
